

Everlasting God

Words and music by Eugene Ilin

1. Far from the earth, far from me, there are stars and pla - nets, bright and free.
Why do you say, Ja - cob, that your life is all so was - ted,
2. A - bove the earth, close to me, there is God, Whose love is gua - ran - teed.

A - mong those shin - ing won - ders so much higher than all my strug - gles Reigns He, the Cre - that you're for - got - ten, lone - ly, and the storms ex -haust you whol - ly? Lift your eyes Hea -vens are filled with won - ders, giv - ing hope in all my strug - gles. Lift your eyes a - tor, One, Who counts the stars by num - ber. Each spar - row is fed and lil - lies are kept by high - er, don't let foes, though great in num - ber, def - lect by dis - may your eyes on this day from high - er, say a few words to your Fa - ther. He'll ans - wer you and give you strength a -

Him. _____ Do you not know, have you not heard, that the Lord God is God. _____
new. _____

ne - ver tired or - wea - ry?! He gives the wea - ry strength when they get tired, He is Lord, the E - ver - last - ing God! _____