

Repentance

Words and music by
V. Perebikovskiy

S.
A.

1. Long a - go John cried out in the de - sert,
2. Now when John had called them to re - pen - tance,
3. Can you hear the cry - ing in your de - sert?

T.
B.

3

"O - pen wide your hearts for Christ the Lord;
Je - sus came Him - self to Jor - dan's side;
Is your heart not griev - ing for its wrong?"

5

Throw ou ev' - ry - thing that harms or hind - ers, For the Asked that John would grant him ho - ly bap - tism, Tho' He Your sal - va - tion comes thro' Christ our Sav - iour. He will

7

King has come with His re - ward!" Un - to had no sin like you and I. Christ was turn your sor - row in - to song! To be

Refrain

*Solo Soprano sings all throughout the first verse and refrain.
Solo Baritone sings the melody starting from the second verse, to the end.*

9

Christ our King, bring an of - fer - ing! Bring you pure and clean; He was per - fect, too. Why should freed from sin: Oh, what peace and joy! Soar - ing

2. Pure and clean, per - fect, too.
 3. Oh, what peace, Oh, what joy!

11

heart - poor and humb led, bro - ken. On - ly deep - est grief of a re - He seek bap tis - mal wa - ter? He was mo - del - ing that which was high in the sky as eag - les! Thro' the cross of Christ, borne by His

2. Mo - del - ing,
 3. Cross of Christ,

14

pent - ant heart Is the gift that shows we love Him.
 right and true So that we may fol - low af - ter.
 wond - rous love, We be - come His cho - sen peop - le.
 mo - del - ing,
 wond - rous love,